CLOGS ALLERGENS DISCLAIMER:

Whilst Clogs will always endeavour to accommodate customer special meal requests, food allergies or intolerances, we cannot guarantee completely allergy-free meals. This is due to the potential of trace allergens in a busy working environment and the limited control we have over supplied ingredients. If you do have any type of allergy, mild or severe, please inform our team at the time of ordering any meals via our restaurant, take away or home delivery services.

ABOUT CLOGS

In 1974 three Dutch brothers began a journey which started Clogs Pizza Castle in Bendigo and was the first free home delivery service in Australia. 1986 saw the Pizza Castle expand and become Bendigo's first a la carte Restaurant and now with a few aesthetic and concept changes, Clogs is still going strong 45+ years later.

Clogs is still owned and operated by the van Haandel's and still uses the same dough recipe from the beginning. Most of the original pizzas are even still on the menu. Youngest son Michael has now taken over the operations with his partner Di.

Most recently in 2017 the Clogs building, an iconic Vahland exterior underwent a bold transformation with the exterior being painted a bright energetic mint green to symbolise what Clogs is all about and was shortly followed by a unique and contemporary retro chic interior redesign.

The terrazzo floors, hardwood features and Italian leather banquettes make for a comfortable, fun and slightly Italian feel. Don't be fooled by the name. Clogs has a diverse yet fun wine list, delicious cocktails and a changing selection of craft beer and cider to compliment a modern Australian/ Italian influenced gastro delight.

Come in and enjoy what we have on offer from 5pm until late every evening.

Enjoy Clogs Eat in, take away or home delivered!

DID YOU KNOW

Clogs was also one of the first restaurants in the country to have their pizzas featured on airline in-flight menus.

The 'Clogs Special' and many of the Clogs Original pizza range are still the same traditional pizza recipes created more than 40 years ago...

Clogs Gourmet Pizza range was the first gourmet pizzas available in Bendigo.

The original pizza base recipe is still being used today.

Clogs was the first free delivery pizza in Australia.

A former Clogs chef had pizzas delivered to the base he was working at in Antarctica

The Clogs building was architecturally designed by William Vahland, one of the most notable architects during the Bendigo goldfields era.

ORIGINAL PIZZA

Clogs pizza bases are not too thick and not too thin. Perfect!
