2019 Quealy Friulano (Mornington Peninsula, VIC) 44
This Friulano is grown on a certified organic vineyard in the Mornington Peninsula. It has a gentle spice and volume from the sunkissed grapes with a few hours cool maceration. Friulano is quite different to many white grape varieties, because the wine has both an intellectual structure simultaneously with a thick, creamy, some say Creme Patissiere, mouthfeel and flavour. Quite an extraordinary sensation made by one of Australia's greatest winemakers.

Soave

*Soave is one of Italian most appreciated white wines. Soave is Italian for “Suave”, and although many believe that the name is related to the often sleek and smooth characteristics of the wine, it actually comes from the name of the village of Soave, near Verona. ## Sangiovese / Chianti

Italy's most famous wine region is called Chianti. It is nestled in the hilly areas surrounding Florence in Tuscany. The main grape variety used in Chianti wine is Sangiovese, though the wines are often referred to simply as “Chianti”. A thin skinned grape that creates world-class wines that typically exhibit common aromas and flavours of red fruits, dried herbs, balsamic vinegar, sour cherries, sweet tobacco smoke, and game meat. There are few, if any wines on the planet that go so brilliantly with Italian foods - especially pizza, pasta and cured meats.

- 2019 Toscolo Chianti (Tuscany, Italy) 47
100% Sangiovese, this is supple with cherry fruit and a soft, flavourful palate with appealing balance and that essential ‘bite’ that makes Sangiovese particularly food-friendly and versatile. A pizza wine for sure. Owner’s favourite.
- 2018 Fontavera Sangiovese (Tuscany, Italy) 11 / 49

- 2013 Vinea Marson Sangiovese (Heathcote, VIC) 69
“The bouquet is full of an Arabian bazaar of exotic warm spices over a compote of cherry and plum; the savoury side of sangiovese takes control of the palate - a tale of two cities, but a compelling one. 95 Points” - James Halliday - SOLD OUT BACK SOON -

“Every day, people literally stop me in the street and ask how I keep my amazing hourglass figure... however they never believe me when I tell them the truth. You wanna know the secret? Clogs Pizza. It’s that simple.”

Hailing from Northern Italy's Piedmont region, this grape is known for producing powerful, full-bodied, and tannic wines—all while looking as pale as Pinot Noir! Not only do Nebbiolo wines look light, they also smell light too, with disarming red fruit and rose aromas swirling around the nose. That all changes the second it goes into your mouth. There a delightful leathery goodness clings to your teeth, tongue, and gums. Expect that to be followed up with striking flavors of cherry, florals, coffee, anise, and dusty earth.*
